

ADAMS MEMORIAL LIBRARY CARD POLICY

When applying for a library card, a driver's license or a Rhode Island ID with the current address is required. If this is unavailable the library will accept two (2) other forms of identification with the current address (see below for acceptable forms of identification). For children under the age of sixteen (16), a parent or guardian must show one piece of identification and sign the children's application in person at the library. For children under eighteen (18), if they do not have a RI ID or License, a parent or guardian must sign the application as well.

Some acceptable forms of identification are:

- *Current driver's license or Rhode Island State ID
- *Auto registration
- *Postmarked mail
- *Recent utility bill
- *Checkbook
- *Lease Agreement

*Always bring your Adams Library card with you when you visit the library

*There is a $1.00 replacement fee for a lost or stolen card.

*You are responsible for all materials borrowed on your library card from the time they are checked out until they are checked in.

*Please report a lost or stolen card immediately to avoid responsibility for unauthorized use.

*When you sign the back of the library card, you agree to uphold the contract that appears on each card.

*This card is non-transferable.

RHODE ISLAND LAW:

Any person who shall borrow library property, and who, upon neglect to return the same Within the time required and specified by the library owning the property, after receiving Notice in writing that the same is overdue, shall upon further neglect to return the same Within sixty (60) days from the date of notice, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00).
